2023 NLIHC HOUSING POLICY FORUM HOTEL SCHOLARSHIP

NLIHC believes in the active participation of low-income people in all areas of our work. A limited number of shared-lodging scholarships are available for 3 nights at the Hilton Washington DC Capitol Hill for low-income people to attend the 2023 NLIHC Housing Policy Forum. Hotel scholarship recipients must be current, dues paying NLIHC members and must pay their own travel and Forum registration costs. Scholarships will generally be awarded on a first come, first serve basis with consideration given to geographic diversity and applicants who have not received scholarships in the past.

TERMS

Please sign your initials next to each of the following lines, to indicate your commitment to the following expectations for receiving a hotel scholarship:

____ Scholarship recipients must commit to attending all Forum sessions, including the Tenant Leaders sessions, on March 20 and March 21, all Forum plenary sessions, and Capitol Hill day on March 23.

____ Only current dues paying NLIHC members who have paid the $100 Forum registration fee are eligible to receive hotel scholarships (To check your membership status or learn more about membership, contact outreach@nlihc.org)

____ All hotel scholarships are for shared lodging. NLIHC staff will match you with a hotel roommate of the same gender unless you indicate a specific person to be your roommate.

____ All hotel scholarships are for three nights of lodging at the Hilton Capitol Hill. Monday, March 20; Tuesday, March 21; Wednesday, March 22. You must arrange lodging for any additional nights you plan to stay in D.C. Some exceptions will be made to accommodate attendees whose travel requires staying overnight in Washington on Thursday, March 23 to participate in Capitol Hill Day.
