Research Objectives

Study 1: To compare COVID-19 incidence (cases per population) and mortality (deaths per population) over time, between states that lifted their eviction moratoriums vs. states that maintained their moratoriums.

Study 2: To examine the relationship among eviction, housing instability, health inequity, and COVID-19 transmission
Eviction Moratoriums, March 13th – September 3rd

State Level Eviction Moratorium Status Over Time

Median start date: March 19th

Median stop date: May 31st

Lifting Moratoriums Increased COVID-19 Incidence and Mortality

Effects were stronger in states with weaker moratoriums

Stages 1-2 (dotted line): Notice and filing
Stages 3-5 only (dashed line - - -): Hearing, judgement, and enforcement

Excess COVID-19 cases and deaths associated with lifting eviction moratoriums (national)

433,700 excess cases

10,700 excess deaths

State highlights: Excess COVID-19 cases & deaths

- Iowa lifted its moratorium May 27th
  - 19,360 excess cases (95% CI 15,370 – 23,350)
  - 354 excess deaths (95% CI 304 – 403)

- Idaho lifted its moratorium April 30th
  - 9,730 excess cases (95% CI 8,270 – 11,190)
  - 157 excess deaths (95% CI 142 – 172)

- Maryland lifted its moratorium July 25th
  - Excess cases and deaths were not statistically significant.

- Texas lifted its moratorium May 18th
  - 148,530 excess cases (95% CI 120,650 – 176,420)
  - 4,456 excess deaths (95% CI 4,015 – 4,897)

Eviction Increases the Risk of COVID-19 Acquisition and Transmission

COVID-19 Eviction Increases Health Inequity

Eviction
- Black households 2x as likely to be evicted
  - 80% of people facing eviction were Black in multiple cities
  - Black women evicted at highest rates
  - Single greatest predictor of eviction is the presence of a child
- People of color have 1/12 wealth of white people
- 70% of Black and Latinx adults entered pandemic without emergency funds
- Job loss affected Black (44%) and Latinx (61%) workers at higher rates than whites (38%)

COVID-19
- Hospitalization Rates:
  - Black and Hispanic adults are 4.7 and 4.6 times more likely than whites
- Death Rates:
  - Black, Hispanic and Indigenous people are 2.3, 1.5 and 1.75 times more likely than whites.
  - Black and Hispanic adults are dying at rates of white people a decade+ older

Gov. Gary R. Herbert issued an Executive Order today April 1st instituting a moratorium on residential evictions for a narrow group of tenants who have been directly impacted by COVID-19. The order is effective immediately and applies only to individuals who have suffered wage or job loss as a result of COVID-19, have undergone self isolation or quarantine in compliance with an order issued by the Utah Department of Health or a local health department, or have tested positive for COVID-19. It is effective through May 15.

Effective September 4, the order declares a national moratorium on residential evictions for eligible renters for nonpayment of rent and nonpayment of other fees or charges until December 31, 2020.

Utah received $935 million in emergency funding through the federal CARES Act. We still have more than $307 million yet to be spent by the end of this year.

During the last commission’s meeting on November 12, 2020, Utah Housing Coalition made a presentation on the status of evictions since March and how the rental assistance funds have been distributed across the state. Tara Rollins expressed great concern about the funds being almost spent and that the CDC national eviction moratorium will expire on December 30 of this year. What will happen in January 2021?!

The Commission will seek additional emergency rental assistance from the current and the new Governor for the December 1, 2020 – February 1, 2021 time frame. This item received a unanimous vote from the commission. The other item, which received three no votes, was to extend the eviction moratorium from January 1, 2020 to February 1, 2020.

Harris County during COVID

- 16,015 evictions filed since March 15th, 2020 in Harris County, with 2,524 cases on the docket currently.
- Only about 3.9% of defendants had legal representation.

- Tenants: struggling to Pay Rent, but many times prioritize rent payments over other monthly expenses. Many tenants do not know what to ask from their landlord or fear sharing economic struggle with their landlord, overall frustration about navigating assistance, some tenants prefer to leave the unit as soon as they are at risk of eviction or get a notice to vacate.

- Landlords: trouble Collecting Rent Payments and continue to meet their expenses, many Landlords want tenants to be communicative, and discuss potential agreements, are not aware of many resources available. Last month a few of the small landlords we talked to were not aware of the CDC halt on evictions order.

- Landlords have shared that:
  - direct cash assistance to renters helps them, but more technical assistance during the application process is needed
  - Expansion of HUD Section 8 would be helpful,
  - Relief to assist with rising insurance rates would help,
  - Increased access low-interest lines of credit and lower-interest sources to refinance help small and medium sized landlords,
  - Recommend extending homestead exemption for rental units with long-term tenants (10+ year tenancy).
