

NLIHC MEMBERSHIP

The National Low Income Housing Coalition (NLIHC) is a broad, member-based coalition of over 1,000 committed advocates across the nation. NLIHC is dedicated to achieving racially and socially equitable public policy that ensures people with the lowest incomes have quality homes that are accessible and affordable in communities of their choice. Every single member strengthens NLIHC's mission and builds power and momentum for the housing justice movement.

WHO SHOULD JOIN?

NLIHC membership is open to both individuals and organizations, and includes tenant and resident associations/unions, government agencies, housing providers and developers, service organizations, public housing authorities, legal organizations, advocacy coalitions, people with direct experience of housing instability, professionals in the field, students, allied individuals and organizations, and more. NLIHC's strength lies in the diversity of members!

WHY JOIN?

Members join NLIHC to strengthen their advocacy, connect with peers across the country, and add their voice to the housing justice movement. Membership provides access to the following benefits:

- NLIHC's weekly e-newsletter and timely calls to action
- 1:1 support for federal advocacy
- Discounted tickets to NLIHC's annual Housing Policy Forum
- Opportunities to provide feedback on NLIHC's policy priorities and advocacy strategies
- Connection to a wide network of housing advocates across the country
- Free trainings on community organizing
- Recognition for successful advocacy and organizing work
- Discounts on NLIHC print publications

WHAT DOES IT COST TO JOIN?

Annual membership dues ensure that all members have a stake in the coalition's collective success. Many NLIHC members live on low incomes or small operating budgets, which is why all membership dues are suggested amounts. Members can join or renew at any amount that is affordable to them. Below are the suggested annual dues rates for different memberships.

Member Level	Suggested Annual Dues
Low Income Individual	$5
Student	$5
Individual	$110
Resident, Tenant or Student	$15
