

SUMMARY OF DEADLINES (as of November 2, 2017)

Transitional Sheltering Assistance (TSA)

Texas, November 27. FEMA has again extended TSA, now to November 27. However, there is a mid-term eligibility review on November 7 when households participating in TSA will receive a phone call, email, and/or text message advising them if they have continued eligibility for assistance through a TSA participating hotel. The TSA program pays for survivors to stay at hotels while they look for long-term housing.

Florida, December 3. FEMA has extended TSA from November 5 to December 3. Participants will receive a phone call telling them whether they are eligible and what they need to do to remain. Eligible households not currently in the TSA program are automatically notified.

Individual Assistance (IA)

Florida, November 24. The deadline to apply for Individual Assistance in Florida is November 24.

Georgia, November 14. People seven counties in Georgia have until November 14 to register with FEMA for Individual Assistance.

Texas, November 24. Residents of the 41 designated counties in Texas have until Friday, November 24 to register for FEMA grants.

Virgin Islands, December 18. Survivors of both Hurricanes Maria and Irma have until December 18 to register for assistance with FEMA. People may be eligible for grants to repair and rebuild their homes and/or replace essential personal property.

Florida, Applying for Extension of Rental Assistance. (No date specified in October 13 FEMA media release) People registered with FEMA in Florida who are receiving rental assistance through the Individual and Households Program (IHP) may be eligible to apply for continued rental assistance. Rental assistance extensions run for three-month periods not to exceed 18 months from the date of the disaster declaration as long as the household remains eligible.

SBA Low Interest Loans

Florida, November 9. Renters, homeowners, and businesses in Florida disaster areas have until November 9 to apply for SBA low-interest loans.

Puerto Rico, November 9. Private nonprofits have until November 9 to apply for low-interest loans to cover physical damage caused by Hurricane Irma.

Georgia, November 14. Renters, homeowners, nonprofits, and businesses in seven Georgia counties have until November 14 to apply for SBA for low-interest loans.

Florida, November 20. Private nonprofits have until November 20 to apply for low-interest loans to cover physical damage caused by Hurricane Irma.

Texas, November 24. Renters, homeowners, nonprofits, and businesses in Texas have until November 24 to apply for SBA for low-interest loans.

Virgin Islands, December 18. Renters, homeowners, nonprofits, and businesses in the Virgin Islands, whether impacted by Maria or Irma have until December 18 to apply for low-interest SBA loans.

Disaster Unemployment Assistance

Florida, October 31

Texas, October 31

Puerto Rico, November 13. Individuals who lost their livelihood because of either Hurricanes Irma or Maria may be eligible for FEMA funded Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA). The benefit applies to those who were employees or self-employed.

Immediate Foreclosure Relief

Florida, December 9

Public Assistance

Texas, October 31. Local, state and nonprofit agencies and organizations in Texas seeking reimbursement for Hurricane Harvey expenses have until 5 p.m. October. 31, 2017 to submit their requests to the Texas Division of Emergency Management (TDEM).

Florida, November 5. The Florida Division of Emergency Management requests state, local, or tribal governments and certain nonprofit organizations that experienced damage from Hurricane Irma to submit their requests for reimbursement by November 5. Requests received by November 5 will be forwarded to FEMA on or before FEMA's November 10 deadline.

Georgia, November 14. Georgia state and local governments, and certain nonprofits, have until November 14 to submit Requests for Public Assistance. The Public Assistance Grant Program provides federal reimbursement of debris removal, emergency protective measures, and repair or replacement of public infrastructure.

Blue Roof

Virgin Islands, November 3. Virgin Island residents have until November 3 to apply for free temporary roofing repairs to their homes through the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers' Operation Blue Roof.